A case in point yesterday was the arrival of Maude Adams in New York. This was in all the New York papers of Thursday and Friday last, which reached here yesterday and Monday, but it was featured in a Salt Lake paper yesterday as one of the "telegrams" of the day.

PARK WAS CROWDED. Estimated That 15,000 People Attenda

ed the Reunion.

The Sunday school authorities estimate the crowd at Liberty park yester. lay at 15,000. In support of this statement the fact is cited that 8,000 bottles of soda water and root beer were sold during the day, to say nothing of the ice cream and fountain soda contumed by the immense throng. Despite the jam everything went off very smoothly and great credit is due the committees for the manner in which the big event was pulled off. About 4 o'clock company B of the Twelfth infantry, under command of Capt, Pardee, gave an exhibition drill which, although somewhat interfered with by the surging throng, was much appreciated by those who witnessed it. Then followed music by the Fort Doug-as band and songs by the Sunday as band and songs by the Sunday school children, these including "Amer-ca," and "In Our Lovely Deserct," which were rendered with spirit under the direction of Stake Chorister Alvin A. Beesley. A little later there was a pame of basball between the Second and Sixteenth wards, representing the ast and west sides, the former winning by a narrow margin. SENSATION AT LIBERTY PARK

Policeman Who Fired Shot Was Charles Leaker and His Victim Was William Wilson.

Crazed by too much whisky, creating a disturbance at Liberty park, resisting and beating an officer who tried to arrest him, and then finally receiving a severe wound from the officer's revolver was the finish of an afternoon's rowdyism yeserday for William Wilson, aged 19 years, residing at 449 West Second South street. He is now in the Holy Cross hospital and his chances for recovery are about even. The policeman who fired the shot was Charles Leaker, recently appointed to a position on the force, and detailed for duty at Lib. erty park.

ASSAULTED THE OFFICER.

The shooting was caused by Wilson's attack on the officer who tried to arrest him and three companions who had been creating a disturbance and throwing bottles in the park where several thousand children were enjoying a day of sport. When Leaker attempted to treet them, they turned on the officer of sport. When Leaker attempted to arrest them, they turned on the officer, threw him to the ground and severely beat him, one of them striking the officer on the chin with a bottle and inflicting a severe wound. They took the officer's club away, and he was torced officer's club away, and he was forced to draw his revolver for self-protection. Wilson was in the act of running away when Leaker fired the shot that brought his man down and made him think more of his folly. Wilson's companions were Frank Davi, age 22, 126 N street; Leonard Doolan, aged 20, of 182 P street, and Herbert Houghton, age 17, of 90 M street. None of them deny resisting and beating Officer Leaker, but they contend they were doing nothing to war-rant arrest. HOW TROUBLE STARTED.

Officer Leaker says he first observed the gang when they were breaking bot-tles and throwing them into the park among the children. He ordered them to stop, and said if they did not he would arrest them. Wilson said he might arrest him but he could not take Davi. Leaker then placed them all un-der arrest and marched them to the Davi. Leaker then placed from all under arrest and marched them to the patrol box to send for the wagon. While waiting there Wilson remarked: "If you fellows are my friends, help me." He then struck the officer in the face and the blow was a signal for the gang to pitch onto Leaker. They threw him to the ground and Davi twisted his club out of his hand. Leaker was beaten about the face and head er was beaten about the face and head and one of them, said to be Davi, struck him on the chin with a knife or bottle and cut the flesh to the bone.

POLICEMAN'S STORY.

"I was powerless and was being $18.00. $18.00. $1800. inded to death," said Leaker, "and having no help I reached for my gun to protect myself. Wilson started run and I fired. I am sorry I hit t boy and hope he will recover, but I had to protect myself from their assault." As soon as the shot wa, fired, Wilson sank to the ground and his comp left the officer and ran to his assis-tance. The shot attracted Sergeant Hempel and several officers who hastemper and several oncers who has tened to the scene and placed the crowd under arrest. The four were placed in a hack and accompanid by Officer Parry and Officer Leaker were hauled to the and Officer Leaker were hauled to the police station. Wilson was laid cut on a table and City Physician Stewart summoned. Wilson was still very drunk and cursed and acted in a boisterous manner. Dr. Stewart pronounced the wound serious and thied to probe for the bullet, but Wilson fought against it. The wound was dressed and Wilson was placed on a stretcher and taken to the Holy Cross hopital in the patrol wagon. Leaker accompanied Dr. Stewart to the hospital. art to the hospital.

BULLET REMOVED.

An operation was at once performed An operation was at once performed on Wilson and the bullet removed. It was found the pelvic bone had been plerced on the left side by a .38 caliber bullet. It grazed the peritoneum and the spinal cord. It was found imbedded in the pelvic bone on the right side. Wilson railied from the operation and Dr. Stewart said if no complications set in, his chances for recovery would be even.

DRESSING THE WOUND.

Dr. Stewart dressed Leaker's wound and it required three stitches to close up he gap. The young men who were ompanions of Wilson were held at the station. They all admitted the attack on Leaker and said they all punched him. They denied using a knife or bot-tle and say that the cut in Leaker's chin might have been done with a ring. chin might have been done with a ring. When searched a pint bottle of whisky was found on Doolan and Davi. The latter is regarded by the police as being a rather tough youth who has a record for fighting. Wilson has been employed by the Crabtree Commission, company. County Attorney Westervelt made an investigation of the case last night and recommended that the youngmen he placed under $500 bonds each. nen be placed under $500 bonds each Several eyewitnesses to the affair unhesitatingly declared that Officer Leak-er was in danger of great bodily harm and that he was perfectly justified in shooting Wilson. Capt. Burbidge made a careful inquiry into the facts and also said that Leaker was justified.

The new Irrigation Law, in pamphlet form, only 10c at the Deserot News Book Store. THE COLOR OF THE ROSE

More than with any other flowers does the color of the rose have special significance. Red is love, white is slience, yellow speaks jealousy. One of the leggads connected with the rose tells that it became white through being bathed with the tears of mourner's who sought the sweetest flower to lay in the hands of their dead. A prettier conceit declares that all roses were white until one day young Cupid, dancing among them, upset in his merry sport a glass of wine, which dyed the roses upon which it fell, red, its own color. Another legend tells the story roses upon which it fell, red, its own color. Another legend tells the story of a holy little maid of Bethlehem who was doomed to death. When the stakes were henced around her the fire would not burn, but the brands which had been flaming turned to red roses, and those which had not caught, to white. From this time forth roses, red and white, were martyr's flowers. The Turks say that red roses sprang from the blood of Mohammed.—N. Hudson Modre in the July Delineator.
